

Shelving Accessories

Accessories

Brownbuilt recognises that shelving flexibility requires an extensive range of accessories to maximise available storage space and to make materials handling easier. Brownbuilt offers a wide range of accessories to suit RUT and Unichannel shelving systems to enable the design of storage solutions to suit individual requirements.

Doors and Frames

- Lockable doors for added security.
- Convert open bay shelving to secure enclosed storage 3-point locking system.

Cross Bracing

- Enhanced stock visibility/air circulation.
- Used with or without weldmesh backs instead of sheet metal back panels.
- Unichannel shelving available with side bracing.

Bin Fronts

- Contain and protect materials.
- 50mm high to suit 750mm and 900mm wide shelves.
- (1200mm wide available on application).

Label Holders

- Assists with stock identification.
- Suits 750mm & 900mm wide shelves (1200mm wide available on application).

Metal Divider Plates

- Enhance stock organisation Available in a wide variety of heights and depths.

Metal Parts Boxes

- Provides small components storage.
- Supplied with label identifier and can be fitted with internal dividers.

Quality and Support

All Brownbuilt products are supported by a quality system based on Australian Standard AS/NZ ISO 9002:1994. When you deal with Brownbuilt through SpeedRack not only do you benefit from our extensive design and consultancy resources gained from over 70 years of experience, but you are also supported by a comprehensive national installation and service network.

Brownbuilt Select

SpeedRack storage consultants and engineers can design and manufacture an individual shelving installation with customised or purpose-built accessories to maximise your storage capabilities.